DRAPER, THE MOST BITTER VOE OF ORGANIZED LABOR, MUST BE BEATEN
—MASSACHUSETTS STATE BRANCH, A. F. OF L.

The action of the State Federation of Labor upon the candidacy of Eben S. Draper for lieutenant-governor has been incorrectly reported. The AMERICAN regrets that this has occurred. In view that there may be no further misunderstanding the AMERICAN prints herewith the resolution as finally adopted:

Resolved, that it is the united sentiment of the Massachusetts State Branch of the American Federation of Labor that the hour has struck when in self-defense of its organized life, organized labor must stand shoulder to shoulder in defense of its sacred rights:

Whereas, Eben S. Draper of Hopedale has been nominated for Lieutenant Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, it is the united sentiment of this convention that the union men of this State should exert every effort to defeat the said Draper at the coming election;

In all the annals of unionism there never appeared a more bitter foe to organized labor than Eben S. Draper, as shown by his acts in the past, and it is the opinion of all that the condition of affairs as they exist in Hopedale is a blot upon our country and its constitution; and the executive council is hereby directed to take immediate steps to secure the defeat for Lieutenant Governor of Eben S. Draper.

Capture of Frolic and Arrest of Lehneman Followed by Revelation of Gigantic Conspiracy to Convey Mongolians into United States.

As a result of the capture of the Frolic, upon which forty-two Chinamen were brought into this country from Newfoundland, and the arrest of James B. Lehneman in Halifax to day, who is regarded as the chief of the smugglers, the immigration authorities believe that they have broken up a gigantic conspiracy to land Mongolians in America by way of the sea.

As the facts are gradually coming out about the immense profits of the enterprise, the government officials are amazed at the magnitude of the scheme conceived by the syndicate which had its headquarters in Boston.

COST $1,500,000 TO BRING IN 1,500.

It is estimated that within the last two years 1,500 Chinamen were brought into this country illegally at a total cost of $1,500,000. To-day it is said that there are 500 of them on the Canadian border awaiting another Frolic adventure.

Lehneman, a big, twenty-two, wearing much jewelry and having more than $100,000 in cash in his possession, was arrested in Halifax as he attempted to land from the Red Cross steamer Frolic at Halifax about the regular passengers. He offered the men who took him into custody $500 to let him go.

"After doing the United States authorities," he said, "I have to be looked up in a safe house near the Halifax."

POLICE HAVE CONFESSION?

The police say that Lehneman made a full confession to them as to his part in the plot to land Chinamen in this country.

The young man admitted that he was getting tired of being in hiding and was rather glad that he was caught.

It is said that he is in hiding in a safe house near the Halifax.

COLBY MAY SURRENDER.

Captain Herbert F. Colby, the skipper who was suspected of the enterprise in the ship, was and for whom the police are looking, is expected to give himself up to the authorities.

It is said that he is in hiding in a safe house near the Halifax.

TRIED TO ESCAPE.

As Lehneman was making his way to the customs officials were alerted and the ship was not to be allowed to leave and the ship was not to be allowed to leave and the ship was not to be allowed to leave.

Lehneman, during his flight, was seen to be in a state of great excitement and was seen to be in a state of great excitement and was seen to be in a state of great excitement.

"Our Girls Prettiest; Come and See," Says Pawtucket Man in Race for Mayor

Believes It as Firmly as He Does the Planks in His Platform.

Says It's No Use for Other Rhode Island Cities to Enter Contest.

Special to the Boston American.
PAWTUCKET, R. I., Oct. 12.—Thomas P. Corcoran, Democratic candidate for Mayor of this city comes out, in this beginning of the campaign, with the positive declaration, in which he believes as firmly as he believes in the planks of his political platform, that Pawtucket can furnish the prettiest girls in the present Rhode Island beauty contest.

Mr. Corcoran was talking about the beauty contest and a friend asked him what he thought of Pawtucket's place in such a match. He said promptly: "I think it is a marvelous thing, that a city as small as Pawtucket should be so proud of its beauty, and I think it is a shame that the other cities of the State should not be so proud of theirs. I think it is a shame that the other cities of the State should not be so proud of theirs. I think it is a shame that the other cities of the State should not be so proud of theirs."

beautiful, or they have never strolled along our business streets on a pleasant afternoon, have never invested an evening to chat with the girls behind the counters of our large stores, or attended a performance at the local playhouses, where our girls are seen at their best.

Had they seen them on any of these occasions, and were they possessed of the proper sense of appreciation, our rival neighbors would forever banish their pretensions and join in the loud acclaim, that of all the girls in Rhode Island, there are none more witty and none more pretty than the girls of Pawtucket.

Several more girls are being cited by their admirers as best types of Pawtucket beauty. Among them prominently mentioned are Miss Grace Barnes, Miss Jane D. Major and Miss Celia Vandall.

How Old Is Jane?

Can You Solve It?

THE mystery of Jane's age will be cleared up in a few days now. It must be one of the Puzzle Editor and his thousands of followers will be candidates for admission to Dr. Upp's Retreat.

If you have not had a try at Jane's age, your solution is quick and then see how near you come to the correct answer. Here is the problem: Jane simply told the judge that she was the eldest of three children who had been born at intervals of exactly a year and a half, and that she was eight times as old as her youngest sister, Eva.

And ever since this happened there has been the greatest time trying to find out how old Jane is. She if you figure it out, and then your answer to Puzzle Editor, BOSTON AMERICAN, No. 3, Beacon Street, Boston.

I should say that Jane is twenty-two years, six months and twelve days old. Her sister Eva is just one year, six months old. MRS. J. O'NEILL.

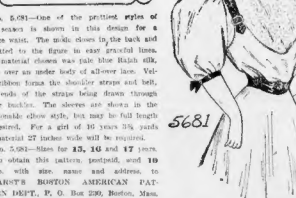

Jane's age is 22 years 6 months 12 days and Eva's age is 1 year 6 months 12 days. CHAS. S. GREENE.

No. 707 Dighton street, Boston.

I have come to the conclusion that Jane is 22 years, 6 months and 12 days old. ALBERT NITEL.

Girls, Think Twice Before You Write Your Love Letters

By Beatrice Fairfax

HAVE you ever written a love letter? If so, has it been to a man you really loved, or to a man you merely thought you loved? There is no wisdom in writing a love letter unless you are sure that you are really in love with the man to whom you are writing. If you are not in love with the man, you are only wasting your time and his. If you are in love with the man, you are only wasting his time and yours.

One Man Only

SAVE your love letters until the right man comes along. He is the only man who will properly appreciate them.

STILL ANOTHER SHOPPING SNAPSHOT IS IDENTIFIED

Originals Appear to Claim the Awards Almost as Soon as Pictures are Printed.

BOSTON women shoppers are following in the wake of the Camera Man this week. Monday and Tuesday's snapshots were identified almost as soon as published.

Now comes the original of the photo published Wednesday and receives the award of $2. The picture was a likeness of Miss Louise B. Larned, of No. 50 Beale street, Hingham.

The Camera Man caught her Tuesday about midnight near Butler's on Beale street, as she was hurrying to reach her home.

Just like finding the money, isn't it? When she saw the picture she thought of it. When she saw the picture she thought of it. When she saw the picture she thought of it.

HEARST'S BOSTON AMERICAN

80 AND 82 SUMMER ST., BOSTON, OCTOBER 12, 1906

Why All This Hubbub About the Capture of the Frolic?

When the United States Government
Hauls in Bringing Chinamen to Our Doors by Thousands?

handling of this elusive boat load of Mongolians.

The Department of Commerce and Labor, the Immigration Bureau, the revenue service, with its speedy cutters, the secret service, customs service, lighthouse tenders and life-saving corps, all combined to avert the calamity.

All this, mind you, TO CATCH FORTY-TWO CHINAMEN BEFORE THEY LANDED IN AMERICA.

While this chase of a Chinese smuggler has been rousing New England, plans for the employment of FIVE THOUSAND Chinese coolies have gone merrily forward in Washington.

This host of coolies will soon be at the very threshold of the United States, digging the Panama Canal at nine cents an hour.

We submit to our readers the respectful and forceful protest against the employment of Chinese labor by our government which the Central Labor Union of Brooklyn has sent to President Roosevelt.

We believe that this protest echoes the feeling of millions of business men as well as the feelings of millions of workmen in this country.

It is a shame, indeed, that desire for economy or disregard of public sentiment should have made the Republican party sponsor for coolie labor on a big scale.

Here are extracts from the protest addressed by labor to Mr. Roosevelt, and we trust voters will read the entire document carefully, and make others read it:

"Whatever may be the reason for employing coolie labor, it is a sad commentary on this great republic that we must depend on the Monroism to help construct one of the world's greatest enterprises of engineering skill, while American labor has the ability and is ready to assume the task if proper conditions are permitted.

"We will be in the position of establishing a precedent and inviting every employer of labor to import more coolies and to haul down our American flag that has been the emblem of patriotism, and it would impress our fellow citizens with the fact that the least of American protection to labor was not sincere.

"He it therefore resolved, that the delegates assembled, composed of representatives of many unions of workmen in the Brooklyn Central Labor Union, do hereby protest against the employment of coolie labor on the Panama Canal, and do further express their desire that American labor be employed."

Our readers must put their minds and their hearts, their deepest and most earnest thought on this question of Chinese labor.

The newspapers a day or so ago printed the following telegram from Washington:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—It has been finally decided that the Panama Canal shall be completed by contract. In a few days the commission will make public its reasons and announce a form of contract showing the sort of document considered necessary for safeguarding the work. President Roosevelt supports the decision. He had a long conference with Chairman Shonts today on the subject.

Readers, you see the MEANING of that statement? CONTRACTORS ARE TO BE ALLOWED TO MAKE ALL THE MONEY THEY CAN OUT OF THAT PANAMA CANAL.

The man who is running that canal is Mr. Shonts, a great railroad contractor, a member of the Railroad Trust.

What would Mr. Shonts and the other railroad men and contractors ask for, first of all, before taking canal contracts for the government? WOULD'N'T THEY BEG FOR CHINESE LABOR?

And hasn't the Republican party GIVEN them the Chinese labor?

Here is the situation:

The Government of this country, in the hands of the Republicans, has contracted for five thousand Chinese at nine cents an hour. What is more important, they have opened the door wide to thousands of other Chinese.

On top of that they turn over the Panama Canal to contractors. These contractors will squeeze all the profit they can out of these coolies AND THEY WILL WIPE OUT AMERICAN LABOR DOWN THERE ENTIRELY, bringing the Chinese in thousands.

Readers, you know what happened in Great Britain when Scotch, Irish and English voters went to the polls, AFTER THE COOLIES HAD BEEN PUT TO WORK IN THE MINES OF THE TRANSVAAL.

They offered the same excuses over there. They said that white labor and negro labor couldn't do the work there. WHAT THEY REALLY WANTED WAS THE CHEAPEST KIND OF CHINESE LABOR.

They GOT it. But as a result the very first election put more than a hundred workmen in the House of Commons, and you may be sure that no English Government will ever dare connive at Chinese labor again.

Business men, little and big, outside of trusts, all those who believe that this country should be run for the interest of the people in it, must rebuke at the polls this Fall this Chinese labor outrage.

Little Editorials from the People

INSIDE FACTS ABOUT DIAPHERS

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

I have just heard about the paper being circulated in the Diapher mine in place of the conditions that exist there. Nearly all of the names signed to it are those of Italians. Some of the Americans signed it, but when they heard about the large number who refused they rubbed their names off.

I am a resident of Milford, but I know the Diapher, and I cannot be a friend to them. If you print this in your paper you will not be putting in anything that is not true. Some of the Italians who signed the paper asked how much money they wanted. They were laboring under the impression that it was a subscription paper.

P. S.—I have just learned that the paper has been going around all day, and that they have not been having any better luck.

The result of this will be that there will be a whole lot of men let go after election.

"THEIR OWN MEDICINE"

Editor BOSTON AMERICAN:

Why not publish something like this and give the American people some of their own medicine?

Governor Gould declines to run. He says he is not willing to have corporations and the trusts contribute funds for his election. He wants respectability in the platform. He is against third terms and insists Roosevelt is laying pipes for a third term. He objects to the mandate of his managers that all his speeches must be submitted to Lodge before delivery.

There are, by the way, but they are no about John S. Moran, the people's candidate.

What Is a Friend?

By Winifred Black

A WELL-KNOWN physician killed himself in a thriving little Western city the other night. He had been drinking late with a party of friends, the dispatches say, and when the friends went home he took a pistol out of his desk and shot himself through the heart.

He left a note saying, "I've tried to stop this whiskey business, but I'm not a man; I can't be a good fellow and ride the water wagon, and I'd rather be dead than to disappoint my friends."

Now, that man was young and handsome; he had money, and he had a beautiful young wife and a pleasant home. But he left all these things and sank into a suicide's grave rather than to disappoint someone or some collection of someone whom he pleased to call—poor fool—his friends.

I know a woman whose husband is serving a term in the penitentiary today because she was determined not to disappoint her friends. The other day a college girl killed herself to escape from the small debts she had brought upon herself rather than to disappoint in entertaining her friends.

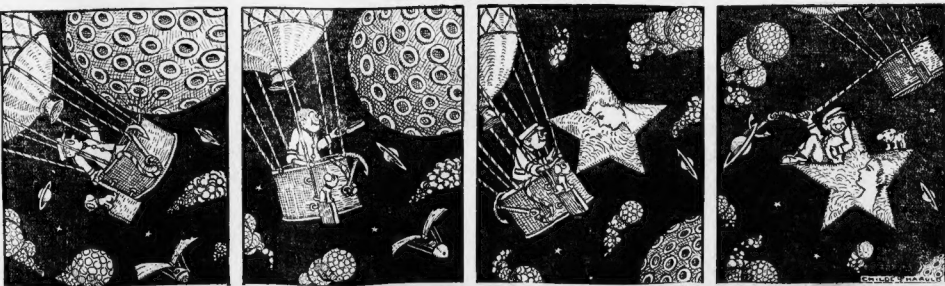

Friends! I wonder if the man who has dying in a sun-baked field calls vultures who swoop above him his friends. Friends! Why, I wouldn't give one look from a pair of devoted eyes that shine in a certain wrinkled old black face I know for all the endorsements that such friends could lavish upon me in a million years.

When you like a man, tell him so, and tell everybody else so, too. If you think a woman is good and honest-hearted, don't take a chance to let her see that you think so.

Why, one real smile, the kind of smile that means honest affection or even just honest appreciation, will win you the most precious thing on earth—a real friend—when all the flattery and flub-dub on earth won't do a thing for you.

Here's to friends, real friends, true friends, the friends that will laugh at you in your face if you've got to be laughed at for your own good, and fight for you behind your back!

NOW WHAT D'YE THINK OF THAT?

"I was up in your balloon, you should hang into the moon."

Apologies at once, and with a snort.

And if I told of my own way, it should happen to be Venus.

I was not a day's journey, any day.
